THE ALLY CENTER’S RESOURCES, SERVICES, AND ACCESSIBILITY ARE CAPABLE AND AVAILABLE TO EXPAND YOUR STUDENTS’ ACADEMIC POTENTIAL.

- WE REFER STUDENTS...
  - To C3 for help with resumes and cover letters.
  - To the Library Services for help with finding research sources.

- WE REFER STUDENTS...
  - To your syllabus for class and assignment guidelines.
  - To Writing Services for help with the writing process.
  - To AMS if they are in need of assistance but are not registered with DS.
  - Back to your department for make-up exams (if not registered with DS).

- WE REFER STUDENTS...
  - To the Library Services for help with research sources.

Serve undergrad and grad students at any location, including online.

Provide personalized peer mentorship on an as-needed or recurring basis.

Provide accommodations to approved LBC students.

To C3 for help with resumes and cover letters.

Provide a brief in-class commercial or guest lecture on a writing topic.

Encourage DS-registered students to share their Course Access Letter with you as needed.

To the Library Services for help with finding research sources.

Support and strengthen APA, MLA and other formats through resources and tutoring.

Develop tutor-led study groups for your courses (including the Math Lab).

Provide DS as a resource to work with so that accommodations (including assistive technology) are understandable.

To AMS if they are in need of assistance but are not registered with DS.

Focus on the students’ writing process while improving their product.

Assist your students in developing study habits allowing them to efficiently focus on class content.

Help identify possible plagiarism cases.

Make the Ally Testing Services available to you for any questions regarding exams and quizzes.

Support and strengthen APA, MLA and other formats through resources and tutoring.

Develop tutor-led study groups for your courses (including the Math Lab).

Receive regular reports of how your students use Ally Center Services.

THE ALLY CENTER’S RESOURCES, SERVICES, AND ACCESSIBILITY ARE CAPABLE AND AVAILABLE TO EXPAND YOUR STUDENTS’ ACADEMIC POTENTIAL.